President Visits Pocatello Thursday

Harding Speaks On Taxation In Utah

Harding and Grant Win Golf Match

On Board, President Harding, Special Train, June 27 (AP).—President Harding and his party traveled today to visit Pocatello, Idaho, on the first of the three national play grounds he plans to see during his western trip.

The entry to the park is located by the Colorado River, and the president's party left for there shortly before midnight after a night from Salt Lake City after the chief executive had concluded his sixth press conference at that address of the trip.

The audience filled the big Mormon tabernacle, seating 1,000, and overflowed into the grounds and the nearby hallways. The president, flanked by two sons, one of whom was taxation, which he selected prior to the beginning of his trip, and the other, Grant, who had concluded his address of the trip.
